Capes-Humboldt Research Fellowships for experienced researchers

In providing Capes-Humboldt Research Fellowships for experienced researchers, the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation and Capes (Coordenação de Aperfeiçoamento de Pessoal de Nível Superior) enable highly-qualified scientists and scholars from Brazil, who completed their doctorates less than twelve years ago¹ to spend extended periods of research (6-18 months; may be divided up into a maximum of three blocks) in Germany. Candidates are expected to have their own, clearly defined research profile. This means they should usually be working at least at the level of Assistant Professor or Junior Research Group Leader or be able to document independent research work over a number of years. Scientists and scholars from all disciplines may apply.

The research outline is carried out in cooperation with academic hosts at research institutions in Germany. Candidates choose their own topic of research and their host in Germany. Details of the research outline including information on the intended duration of the fellowship must be agreed upon with the intended host before applying. The duration of the research fellowship (6-18 months) may be divided up into a maximum of three visits lasting a minimum of three months each. No more than 36 months may elapse between the beginning of the first stay and the end of the last stay. Short-term visits for study and training purposes or for attending conferences are not eligible for sponsorship.

Candidates are selected solely on the basis of the evaluation of their academic qualification. There are no quotas for individual disciplines. A candidate's academic qualification is assessed on the basis of the following criteria:

- academic record and academic performance to date (mobility, determination, breadth of research activities, academic productivity)
- quality of key publications specified in the application (originality, degree of innovation, applicant's contribution in cases of multiple authorship)
- originality and innovation potential of the suggested research outline (significance for the advancement of the discipline, convincing choice of academic methods, prospects for academic development of the applicant, clear focus and feasibility of realization within the requested funding period and at the chosen host institution)
- the applicant's future potential (academic potential, further academic development, career prospects)

Applications are assessed on the basis of independent peer reviews requested by Capes and the Humboldt Foundation. The final decision is taken by a committee composed of academics from all disciplines in the framework of the funding available.

The fellowship is worth 3,100 EUR per month. Capes will pay 2,300 EUR of the monthly fellowship rate for experienced researchers, as well as the subsidy towards the cost of medical insurance, an initial lump sum and a subsidy towards mobility from and to Brazil. The Humboldt Foundation will pay the remaining difference to the fellowship amount of 3,100 EUR including a mobility lump sum amounting to 100 EUR per month.

The application documents will then usually be forwarded to independent reviewers appointed by Capes and the Humboldt Foundation for written review. On the basis of these independent peer reviews a selection committee composed of about 10 academics reaches a decision on approving research fellowships. The selection committee meets twice a year, in spring and in autumn.

If an application has been approved,

- a) the fellow will be asked to fill in a link at Capes system to be able to receive benefits of the scholarship;
- b) the fellow arriving from Brazil may start the fellowship as indicated in the table above. Otherwise the fellowship will be forfeited.

Further details pertaining to the fellowship and to the research stay can be found in the Guidelines and Advice for Research Fellows of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation. Moreover, the Rules of Good Scientific Practice of the Humboldt Foundation and the ethical rules of the 7th EU Framework Programme apply both to applications and sponsorship.
